

ENERGY LAW CERTIFICATE

The Energy Law Certificate is designed for students who are interested in learning about the legal aspects of energy and resource development. The program provides students with a foundational knowledge of business law and business ethics, coupled with a more advanced understanding of topics in energy development.

A minimum of 12 credits are required.

Code	Title	Credits
Required (core):
BUAD 210	Foundations of Business Law	3
BUAD 420	Energy Law and Regulation	3
BUAD 421	Energy Contracts	3
One of the following (ethics):		3
BUAD 300	Business Ethics
PHIL 135	Introduction to Ethics
PHIL 335	Advanced Ethics
ACC 498	Accounting Ethics
ENVS 410	Environmental Ethics
Total Credits		12